

LIVE NEWS FROM THE TWIN CITIES

LOSES TWENTY CENTS

Miss Bertha Bollok of $619 Cedar street, Indiana Harbor, was held up last evening by a negro highwayman and robbed of 20 cents. Miss Bollok was on her way to the Riley school, where she is attending night classes.

BOOTS FOR NEW YEARS

Arrangements are being made by Promoter George Oswego for three 10 round bouts, to be staged New Year's evening. While definite details are lacking, it is believed that Teddy Murphy and Johnnie Sheppard, both from the stockyards, will be in the principal bout.

Sam Mendell of Rockford will in all probability appear with another Chicago fighter in the windup.

AT U. P. CHURCH

Three hundred years ago this fall, the pilgrims came to this country. The members of the U. P. church of Indiana Harbor, will commemorate this event with a special service Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service and everyone is extended an invitation to attend.

This Bible school will meet at 9:30 a. m. This school is open to anyone who wishes to study the Bible. The young people meet at 8:30 p. m., with Ralph Trean as leader. Intermediate meet at 8:45 p. m. in the lower rooms. Evening preaching will be at 7:30.

p. m. On next Friday evening Christmas eve, an entertainment will be given by the Sabbath school. Every member of the church and Sabbath school are urged to be present and to bring all of their friends.

The citizens of Indiana Harbor are asked to darken their homes and display candles in the front window at 8:30 p. m. Christmas Eve.

STANDARD BAND CONCERT

The audience at the McKinley school auditorium, East Chicago, was pleasantly entertained on Wednesday evening by the Standard Oil Company Concert band of the Whiting Refinery.

While every number on the program was well received, the audience was particularly appreciative of the band's rendition of the works of the master composers. The pleasing manner in which these classical numbers were interpreted by the conductor, Milton W. Fox, and the band's ready response to his baton was the subject of every favorable comment.

Primarily, this band was organized to afford employees, who are musically inclined, an opportunity to give expression to their talent and at the same time to furnish entertainment for their fellow employees.

Under the efficient leadership of Mr. Fox, this organization of 45 members now includes in its repertoire many of the compositions of the old masters. In order to widen the scope of the band's usefulness in affording entertainment, concerts have been scheduled for various school auditoriums in this vicinity. The concert on Wednesday evening was the first in East Chicago. At later dates, similar concerts will be held at the Riley and Garfield school auditoriums.

The following program was presented:

1—March, "Stars and Stripes" Sousa.

2—Overture, "Oberon" Weber. 3—Waltz, "Nightmare" Tchaikovsky.

Grand Mosaic from "Faust," Gounod. Intermission. 6—(a) "The Guard Mount," Ellenberg; (b) Romanza "Hearts and Flowers," Catbulka. 6—Fantasia, "Home Sweet Home," the World Over. 7—Lamp, "Second Hungarian Rhapsody," Liszt.

A package arriving all the way from Tokio, Japan, reached its destination yesterday at the Salvation Army headquarters and was from Captain Tench's brother, Rev. Graham Tench, who directs mission work on behalf of the M. E. church Mission Extension Society in that far off land. The box contained novelties evidently made by the children of the natives and were very unique in their structure to American-made toys. Two represented flying birds with wings made of composition resembling celluloid; the other was a toy gun, with the rubber snap attractive to boys. A coin purse made of leather with hand tracing was included for Mrs. Tench. It is most probable that Captain Tench will be prevailed upon to display the tokens in a downtown window which will permit of many to view the odd work of another country. They would surely attract children who are presently engaged in toy making at the schools and the usual interesting comparisons will be the result.

Many invitations have gone forth this week announcing the card party to be held tomorrow evening at the social rooms of St. Alban's Episcopal church at Indiana Harbor under committee of the Woman's Guild. The features of the affair will be in the nature of the approaching Yule-Tide, as to decorations and refreshments. The Mesdames Richard Breidenbach, Harry Rudolph, John Linsey, Robert Warten and H. B. Olney comprise the committee on entertainment.

On Sunday evening, Dec. 19, the choir of the Methodist church in East Chicago, assisted by a junior choir of 20 children and soloists, will give a Christmas musical program. It includes several very unusual features. The complete program will be printed Saturday.
